

PHP Backend Developer (w/m/d) – remote work

About Us:

We are an innovative provider of digital services for the event industry. Our groundbreaking Eventhub, an interactive map that enhances the on-site visitor experience and allows audiences worldwide to digitally experience events, is setting new standards in the golf market. As a key part of the DP World Tour worldwide, and after successful participation in the Solheim Cup 2023 and Ryder Cup 2023, we are expanding into new industries and markets.

As a Backend Developer, you play a crucial role in our team. Together, we are shaping the future of the event industry and setting new standards for events worldwide. To support the team in the provisioning and further development of our platform, we are seeking a PHP Backend Developer [a-z] for a remote position.

Responsibilities include:

- Enhancing our backend platform (PHP, Laravel, Livewire) with new features and functionalities.
- Integrating external systems from the sports and event sector.
- Maintaining and servicing the existing tech stack.
- Focusing primarily on backend systems, with an ideal capability to support frontend developments (LeafletJS).

Your Profile:

- Bachelor's degree.
- Several years of relevant professional experience with PHP.
- Strong knowledge of PHP 8 and the Laravel framework.
- Frontend skills (HTML, JS, CSS) are a plus.
- Fluent in English for effective communication.
- Ability to work independently and an openness to new technologies.
- Preferably, experience with agile development methods such as Scrum or Kanban.

While your qualifications and education are important, your passion for innovation and creativity is what matters most to us. We're searching for a valuable team member who can help us think innovatively, drive change, and make this already fantastic world even better.

We offer:

- Flexible working hours.
- The opportunity to work remotely from home.
- International career opportunities.
- The chance to leave your personal mark on Eventhub and our products, shape the company culture, and grow with the company.
- Excellent prospects for personal development within the organization.
